With reasonable exceptions, members who do not attempt to fulfil their 8 hours of helping this year to December 2016, will not be considered for teams next year, and may have to show willing before rejoining. Should you be at an event and find you have time to help, and we are short of helpers, then that is helpful and time will be noted, however, it will not be counted as helping time if you are at an event and decide there and then to help when not necessarily needed. The commitment must have been made earlier.
